

Dojang rules written by Blasé Dicioccio

Written for the 8th Gup demonstration/test

Dojang Rules

1. When entering and exiting our Dojang All members will Bow with respect to the founding masters and All that the Dojang represents.
2. No street shoes will be permitted in the training area. Martial arts Training shoes will be permitted with prior approval.
3. Bow to the Senior Instructor when present as you enter the training area. (If the instructor is otherwise engaged they may or may not Bow back. This is at the descretion of the Senior Instructor)
4. Abusive behavior to Junior or Senior Students will not be acceptable. Students of Martial Arts are expected to give Respect and courtesy to all other martial artists and martial arts schools.
5. Well in the Dojang Use of foul language and Disrespectful behavior will not be tolerated. No food, Drinks, or snacks are permitted in the training area. Bottle water with a twist tight cap will be permitted only but kept out of the training area.
6. Uniforms are expected to be Clean and in serviceable shape. Uniforms are Not to be worn outside the Dojang in public unless it is for School related events. All equipment will be in good serviceable shape. Any equipment in poor shape will be removed from the Dojang and replaced as soon as possible.
7. Personal hygiene must be observed at all times. As we are training in a martial art which requires very close contact often.
8. At the end of Each instruction class All students are expected to police the Dojang to insure all equipment is in its place and the training area is swept clean and ready for the next training class.
9. All personal items must be secured and out of the way at all times. No jewelry or other expensive items should be used during your training. It is best to leave these things at home if possible.
10. Senior Students are expected to help in the training and development of Junior Students. As we learn we share what we learn and in doing so we learn that much more.